

SPEAKERS CORNER

JAYSON SIMONSON

Jayson Simonson is obsessed with Jesus and His mission on this earth. He is married to his wife, Annette, and they are expecting their first child in December, 2015. Jayson serves as the Global Poverty Initiatives Manager at New Mission Systems International.

Since 2006, Jayson has traveled the United States as a worship leader, passionate speaker, and advocate of community development, poverty alleviation, justice initiatives, child sponsorship, and orphan care. He has also been the worship and assistant pastor for several large, multi-campus churches in the last 8 years.

Jayson has led and directed multiple internship programs, community service projects, and worship teams for various experiences and congregations. He has also raised $300,000 for the alleviation of poverty in his time as a touring worship leader.

Speaking and Teaching Topics:

- Orphan & Vulnerable Children Care
- Child Sponsorship
- Social Justice
- The Missional Church
- Worship Leading
- Being Men of God
- Leadership Development